General guiding conditions – extract

By participating in a CIC course, you automatically become a member of the association. As a canyon guide of the CIC we ask you to respect the following rules :

- Follow an update training every two years after module 2
- Support the association, especially by providing important information concerning canyoning (accident reports, canyon closures, news articles, etc.) to your national representative
- Respect the guide/client ratio of 1 guide for 7 clients, 2 guides for 7 clients in difficult canyons
- Limit yourself to a maximum of 15 persons within one group
- Guide and clients have to wear helmets at all times while in a canyon
- Always carry the minimum recommended first aid kit with you
- Use two lanyards at your harness (i.e. the Spelegyca from Petzl)
- Carry a rescue rope
- Use of the SAFER and follow the recommendations given during the courses.

If you do not respect these rules you risk losing your CIC certification.

Cancellation, modification

The student can cancel the reservation any time before the course starts. He must inform the CIC in writing. In case of cancellation or no show, the CIC has the right to ask for the following cancellation fees:

- Cancellation 60 days or more before the course starts : 25 Euros per person cancellation fees (+ non refundable expenses that may have been engaged).
- 59 to 30 days : 25% of the course fee ;
- 29 to 22 days : 50 %;
- 21 to 1 day(s) : 90 %;
- No show : 100 %.

I have read, understood and accepted all the above statements.

I confirm that I have read, understood and accepted the following statement : The student can be excluded from the course in case of security concerns due to insufficient physical, psychological or technical requirements. The course fees will not be refunded.

Your reservation request is successful if a confirmation page is presented to you after clicking on the "send" button.

Error messages will be presented if you have forgotten to fill out mandatory fields.

Print the form

Please print the form for your records before sending it.

Once your reservation form is sent, you will receive an automatically generated mail which confirms that we received your reservation. In a second stage the CIC will confirm your reservation for the course you asked for. The number of students is limited for each course. The CIC has the right to put you on a waiting list or even to cancel your reservation. You will be informed about that in due time. At least 6 weeks before the course we will issue you a receipt and send you detailed information.
